Firefighters offer holiday safety precautions

Christmas is a joyous time of year and the Northeastern Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Federation hopes you have a happy and safe holiday season. The NEPVFF would like to pass along a few holiday fire safety tips:

When using extension cords for lighting decorations ... Do not run extension cords under carpets or rugs and don't run them around doorways where they might become pinched ... Use indoor light sets for inside trees and outdoor light set for outdoor lights ... Don't burn Christmas gift wrapping in fireplaces or wood burning stoves.

Keep smoke detectors in good operating order. Check periodically. Keep several escape routes open and plan escape routes, incase there is a fire. These are just a few holiday safety tips from the Northeastern Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Federation.

The N.E.P.V.F.F. conducts meetings the second Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. at fire companies throughout the area.

Make sure Christmas trees are fresh and keep them watered so they don't dry out ... Keep Christmas trees and other holiday decorations away from sources of heat ... Don't use electric lights on metal trees.

Pvt. Kovaleski

Pvt. Richard J. Kovaleski, son of Richard J. and Pat A. Kovaleski of 30 Darte Ave., has completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

He is a 1983 graduate of Carbondale Area High School.

Thomas Tell

Thomas E. Tell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tell of Rural Route 1, Forest City, was involved in a NATO-sponsored exercise by participating in the Army's return of forces to Germany (REFORGER) and the Air Force's Crested Cap exercises.

The exercises are designed to develop uniformity of doctrine, standardize procedures for rapid response to a crisis and demonstrate solidarity in commitment to NATO goals and objectives.

Tell is a financial manager with the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.

His wife, Carol, is the daughter of Ed and Hermia Bryant of 411 N. Walnut, Galena, Ohio.

He received an associate degree in 1982 from the Community College of the Air Force.

Holiday Hints

Rumor has it that every Christmas Eve, Santa Claus gives Mrs. Claus a new pair of boots to help her fend off the Arctic winds in fashionable style.

This holiday season, why not follow in St. Nick's footsteps—by filling your Mrs. stocking with a sole-ful present "yule" know she'll enjoy?

Choosing a gift this holiday is a real 'shoe-in' according to Vince Camuto, designer for 9 West fashion footwear, because of the wide variety of versatile styles, soft leathers and wonderful colors.

Camuto suggests sprucing up her wardrobe with a pair of 9 West peacock green tuxedo pumps or brightening up her day with a festive pair of red mesh slingback pumps, trimmed in red leather.

Since the glamour of black is back for the holidays, why not give her a sexy pair of patent leather pumps perfect for those elegant season get-togethers? Or help her kick off a night of joyous caroling with a pair of 9 West's lace-up, mid-ankle booties in bright raspberry.

So, if you want to make this Christmas special—give a gift that's sure to "stand-out" under the tree.
